

H. 'Coat of Many Colors' (R) 2021

Status: Published

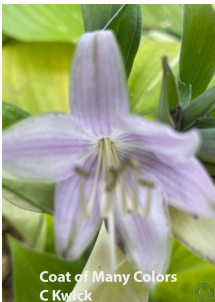

Registered Clump Photo

Registered Leaf Photo

Registered Leaf Photo

Registered Flower Photo

H. 'Coat of Many Colors'

C. Kwick (ONIR)

Plant: 18in (45.7cm) diameter; 9in (22.9cm) high; mound-like; moderate growth rate

Leaf: 7.5in (19.1cm) long; 4.5in (11.4cm) wide; 8 vein pairs; creamy white to white with variable in (0.0cm) wide, green to dark green, slightly rippled margins; dull on top; glaucous bloom underneath; ovate with cordate base; lightly folded and wavy overall

Scape: 8 to 12in (20.3 to 30.5cm) high; light green

Scape Bracts: inflorescence leaves

Flower: 1.8in (4.6cm) long; medium lavender, alternate petals have narrower lavender stripes and translucent margins; bell-shaped; Eau Claire, WI; 7/10 - 7/18 - 7/30

Seed:

Clump History: original sport; 3 years old; Eau Claire, WI

Notable Characteristics: Wide color variation from dark green margins to white centers with some yellow, light green and speckles of greenish yellow on cream.

Pod Parent: N/A

Pollen Parent: N/A

Sport Parent: Sport of H. 'Paul's Glory'

Seasonal Color Change: some leaf misting on interior leaves later in the season

Section Class: III-6a

Patent/PBR Number: N/A

Additional Comments: N/A